

Understand that in sentences nouns may be extended into noun groups using articles and adjectives, and verbs may be expressed as verb groups

Learning intention

- understand that in sentences nouns may be extended into noun groups using articles and adjectives, and verbs may be expressed as verb groups.

Teach and model

- building extended verb groups using verbs.
- building extended noun groups using articles and adjectives.
- identifying nouns that refer to people, places, concrete objects and ideas in sentences in texts.

Check understanding

- Explain the main idea and give one accurate example.
- Show the idea in a second way: with words, a model, a diagram or symbols.
- Apply the idea to a short unfamiliar situation and justify the result.

Teaching cautions

- Ask the student to explain their choice, not only state an answer.
- Check that key vocabulary is understood in a new example.
- Mix representations so the skill is transferred rather than copied.

Quick lesson sequence

- Connect to prior knowledge and introduce the key vocabulary.
- Model one clear example, then solve a second example together.
- Finish with an independent check and a short student explanation.
