

Create and edit literary texts, that may be a hybrid, that experiment with text structures, language features and literary devices for purposes and audiences

Learning intention

- create and edit literary texts, that may be a hybrid, that experiment with text structures, language features and literary devices for purposes and audiences.

Teach and model

- taking an existing short story, poem, play or speech in print form and creating a short film.
- editing by checking for run-on sentences, ensuring that detail or repetition is used for effect.
- adapting traditional and contemporary literature through textual intervention, prequel or sequel.

Check understanding

- Explain the main idea and give one accurate example.
- Show the idea in a second way: with words, a model, a diagram or symbols.
- Apply the idea to a short unfamiliar situation and justify the result.

Teaching cautions

- Ask the student to explain their choice, not only state an answer.
- Check that key vocabulary is understood in a new example.
- Mix representations so the skill is transferred rather than copied.

Quick lesson sequence

- Connect to prior knowledge and introduce the key vocabulary.
- Model one clear example, then solve a second example together.
- Finish with an independent check and a short student explanation.
