

Practice: One Object, One Value

Each object stands for one. Read the display and answer.

Name: _____ Date: _____

 Worked Example
Apples = 4 blocks, Bananas = 3 blocks. Each block is one child. Apples has more: 4 is greater than 3.

Q1. How many does one object stand for?

Q2. Apples has 4 blocks. How many chose apples?

Q3. Which group is taller: apples or bananas?

Q4. How many chose bananas?

Q5. How many chose apples and bananas together? (4 + 3)

Q6. How many more chose apples than bananas? (4 - 3)

Q7. Should all the objects be the same size?

yes / no

Q8. What does 'frequency' mean here?

Explain.